Reena and Roy always wanted a puppy as a pet. One Saturday morning, they had a pleasant surprise. As they went into the kitchen, they saw a puppy in a small box next to the table. Their mother had brought a new pet.

When Reena and Roy saw the puppy, they were very excited. When the puppy saw the children, it started wagging its tail. It was not scared at all and wanted to come out of the box.

The children took the puppy out and started playing with it. They threw a ball and the puppy went to catch it. Their mother was pleased to see them playing with the puppy.

That evening, their mother asked the children to name their new pet. Reena looked at the puppy and tried to think of a name. Reena thought long and hard. The puppy was fluffy and had adorable eyes. It made her think of her teddy bear when she was a child.

“I will call it Bouba!” Reena said. Reena’s mother and brother smiled. They all remembered how Reena loved her first teddy bear named Bouba.

“It is a lovely name, Reena,” her mother said. She reminded the children that they were responsible for feeding Bouba and giving it its bath. Both children promised to look after Bouba with love and care.
