Question 2B (20 marks)Read the text below.

Ameerah sprained her arm very badly. The doctor decided to plaster it and told Ameerah to stay at home for a few days. Ameerah's family and friends were so kind and concerned about her that she soon began to enjoy herself. School friends brought her chocolates and sweets. Her grandmother sent her story books, and her parents made sure she had all her favourite food.

At last the plaster was removed. The doctor said the arm was now quite healed. Ameerah was disappointed. " Oh no, " she insisted, " it's really still quite painful. Look, I can't lift my school bag ! " "Well," said her mother, "perhaps you should stay at home one more day and come to the shops with me."

Mother drove to the shopping centre and parked her car. Ameerah saw someone selling mangoes near the parking lot. " Oh mother, can we have some? " said Ameerah. " They look delicious ! " " Yes, " said mother, "go and buy some for the whole family. "

Fill each blank in the following passage with one suitable word. The first one has been done for you.

Deserts

The driest places on earth are the great deserts where there is very rain. The temperature is often high the day because there is shade from the sun. The temperature is low at night because the dry ground cools very quickly.

Winds strongly across the deserts, as there are very few plants and trees to slow them down. Some deserts are covered thick sand which strong winds can turn into sandstorms. Sandstorms can be so dense that it is difficult for people to where they are going.

The winds also move the sand about so much that it is very difficult plants to take root. The seeds of some plants can lie buried under the sand for months or even Then when rain , they quickly grow. Some plants such as the cactus can also be found in deserts. A cactus has a stem in which it can water.
