

Student's activity worksheet

Activity 1: The villain who tried to spoil Christmas

The villain tried to spoil Christmas. Re-arrange the sentences to complete the story map and know what happens in the story.

- But he became sad when he realised that the villagers were still celebrating despite being poor.
- Once upon a time, there was a villain who hated Christmas.
- In the end, he was happy.
- So, he returned everything to the villagers, and they invited him for dinner.
- On Christmas eve, he decided to disguise himself as Santa and steal all the Christmas presents.

Activity 2: Character sketch of the Villain

Choose some adjectives from the box below to describe the villain at the beginning of the story.

moody

elated

grumpy passionate excited miserable angry irritable

Activity 3: Guess what the Villain might be saying.

Continue the dialogues based on the villain's story. An example has been given for you.

"I just hate Christmas! It irritates me to see these villagers celebrating!"

"Haha, I have an idea....."

.....
.....
....."

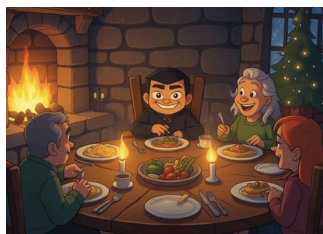

"Oh, they are"

.....
.....
....."

"I think I should"

.....
.....
....."

"I am....."

.....
.....
....."

Activity 4: Decorating the Christmas tree

The villain has learnt his lesson. So, he decides to help the villagers by decorating the Christmas tree.

Help him to place the items on the Christmas tree.

Choose and cut the appropriate items to decorate the Christmas tree.

angel

candy cane

presents

bells

tinsel

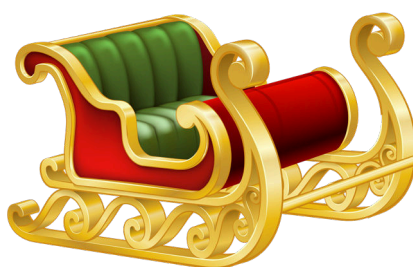

reindeer

snow globe

baubles

sleigh

christmas stocking

Santa

lights