4. Once they have guessed the actions, get them to say a sentence to describe the action using the following structure:
'You are verb+ ing...'

Activity 4: What are they doing in the park?

2. Guide students to form sentences using the given verb in the present continuous tense while describing the picture.
3. Assist students in writing the present continuous form of the verb in the given sentences.

(e.g. He is playing badminton.) If a student cannot make a sentence, the teacher should provide the sentence that the student should repeat.
5. The student who reaches his/her home first wins the game.
