Back to school

Unit one

Hello, Renu. It's good to be back at school.

Hello, Alia. Yes, it is nice to meet our friends again.

Activity 1 - Let's sing

We welcome you back to school

We welcome you to school today,
School today, school today
We welcome you to school today,
Please come in and play.

We're glad to have you here today
Here today, here today,
We're glad to have you here today,
Yes, it's a special day!

Grammar

Activity 11 - I learn: 'a' or 'an'.

Alia and Renu have toy binoculars. Alia looks outside.

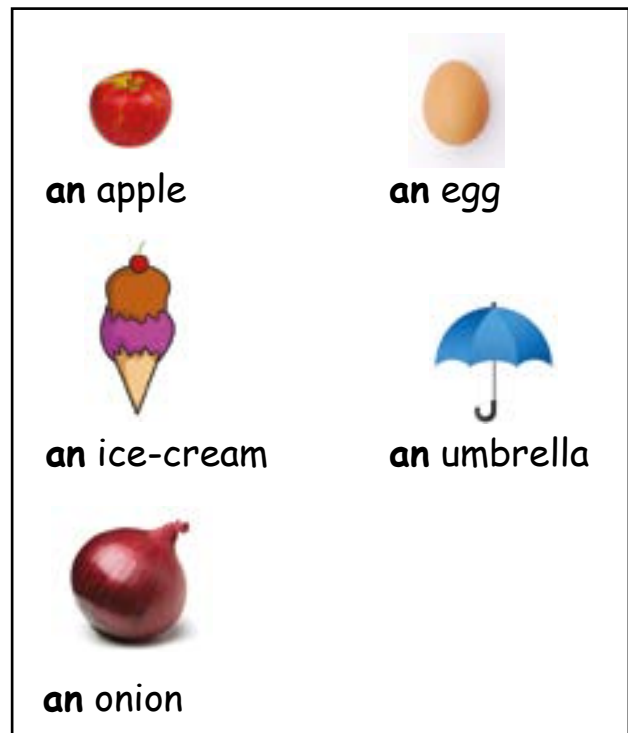

I can see ...

Renu looks in the kitchen.

I can see ...

We observe: usually when a word begins with a, e, i, o, u, we use 'an'.
We say: an apple, an egg.
But we say: a boy, a girl.

Can you find other words that take 'an'?

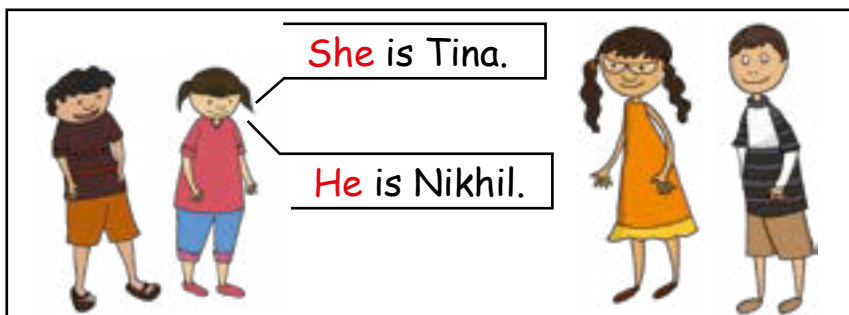

Activity 11a - I write 'a' or 'an' in the blanks.

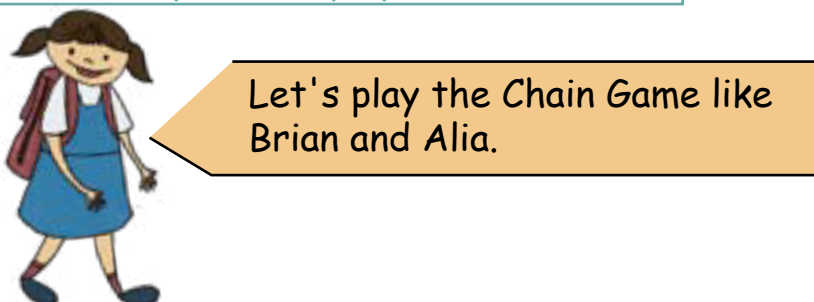

Activity 11b - I look at Bob's exercise book.
I tick the correct answers and cross the wrong ones.

1. The cat sees a mouse. ☐

Activity 12a - I play a Chain Game.

Brian and Alia are playing. Alia finds a blue boat under the bed.
 "Oh! She is beautiful!" exclaims Alia.
 "Hihihi... you are wrong. We don't say 'he' or 'she' for an object,"
 Brian laughs.

We use "it" for an object or an animal.
 E.g. My boat is blue. It is blue.

That's easy. The bear is brown. It is brown.

Activity 12b - I choose the correct word from the brackets and complete the sentences.

1. Miss Shalini is our teacher. _____ is kind. (He, She)
